Depending on how our year goes, we may do some other things such as pep rallies, minister by playing at a nursing home, concert for student body, etc. These performances will most likely take place during the school day.

PLEASE NOTE:

Jr. High Band takes place during the last hour of the day but is still considered an academic class. Therefore, please avoid scheduling doctor visits during this time.

FACS supports the 2002 federal No Child Left Behind legislation which names arts education as part of the "core curriculum" for schools, on par with reading, math and science. This legislation underscores research that supports music education as a critical component to the overall educational experience of our youth. By listing the arts among the core academic subjects, NCLB established a goal that all students have the opportunity to achieve in the arts, and reap the benefits of a comprehensive, creative, innovative education.

BAND BOOSTERS MEET IN THE BAND ROOM (241) THE FIRST TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH @ 7:00. All band parents are encouraged to participate. Band Boosters help to raise money for your child.
