

FIRST ASSEMBLY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY
APPLICATION

Membership in the National Honor society is based upon excellence in four areas: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Each category is judged independently.

Consideration for eligibility for membership to the National Junior Honor Society requires that students are a current eighth grader and have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.75. In addition to the academic requirement, there are standards of leadership, service, and character that are required. Leadership requirements include a demonstration of leadership in school as well as outside of school. Service requirements include involvement in service projects. Character requirements include integrity, positive behavior, ethics, cooperation, reliability in and out of school, and classroom conduct and maturity. After selection and induction into the National Junior Honor Society, members are periodically reviewed by the advisor to ensure they maintain the high standards of the Society.

Active members in the National Junior Honor Society are required to maintain a cumulative 3.75 GPA or better and live up to the character, leadership, and service ideals of the National Junior Honor Society. Members of all FACS honor societies must follow the FACS Honor Code.

Students who are considered eligible for application to the National Junior Honor Society are under no obligation to apply for membership. Although you are to be commended for maintaining a high scholastic average, please understand that membership is not guaranteed to everyone. Final selection to the National Junior Honor Society is the responsibility of the Faculty National Honor Society Council pending final approval by FACS Administration. Applicants may also be interviewed in the event that any questions arise during the selection process.

APPLICATION

Complete ALL sections of the application forms using black ink only.

Be clear and detailed in your responses, and do not be modest or withhold any information. The application is a major component of the selection process.

Prioritize your activities, listing those in which you have had the greatest commitment first. Avoid repeating your involvement in organizations/activities in more than one section of the application form.

The application requests the name of an adult sponsor who can verify your involvement in the activities you list. You MUST include the adult sponsor's name.

Completed applications are due promptly on the specified date. LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

After the selection council and administration reach a decision, details of the induction ceremony will be communicated to all approved applicants.

Should you have any questions regarding membership in the National Junior Honor Society, please contact the FACS Guidance Department.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) is based on a student's fulfillment of four requirements: scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

SCHOLARSHIP

Students are eligible to apply for NJHS membership if they demonstrate academic achievement through their grade point average.

Eighth Grade Year Induction GPA Requirement: A grade point average of 3.75 must be earned during seventh grade year and the first semester of eighth grade year.

Grade point average will not be rounded to meet the minimum requirement.

LEADERSHIP

According to the National Junior Honor Society standards, the student who exercises leadership:

- is resourceful in proposing solutions to problems, applying principles, and making suggestions
- demonstrates initiative in promoting school activities
- exercises influence on peers in upholding school ideals and conduct
- contributes ideas that improve the civic life of the school
- is able to delegate responsibilities
- exemplifies positive attitudes
- inspires positive behavior in others
- demonstrates academic initiative
- successfully holds school offices or positions of responsibility; conducts business effectively and efficiently ; and demonstrates reliability and dependability
- is a leader at work and in school; church or community activities
- is thoroughly dependable in any responsibility given to them
- is willing to maintain academic standing and a loyal school attitude

SERVICE

The National Junior Honor Society standards require that a student:

- volunteer and provide dependable and well organized assistance, is gladly available, and is willing to sacrifice to offer assistance
- works well with others and is willing to take on difficult or inconspicuous responsibilities
- cheerfully and enthusiastically renders any requested service to the school
- is willing to represent the class or school in class or interscholastic competition
- participates in some activity outside of school; Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, youth groups affiliated with religious institutions, volunteer services for the aged, poor, or disadvantaged
- mentors persons in the community or students at other schools
- shows courtesy by assisting visitors, teachers, and students

The FACS chapter of the NJHS requires members to participate in a variety of FACS activities but also to serve the greater community outside of the school.

CHARACTER

Each eligible student will be evaluated by the faculty and administration according to the National Junior Honor Society standards for good character, which state that the student:

- takes criticism willingly and accepts recommendations graciously
- consistently exemplifies desirable qualities of behavior (cheerfulness, friendliness, poise, stability)
- upholds principles of morality and ethics
- cooperates by complying with school regulations concerning property, programs, office, halls, etc.
- demonstrates the highest standards of honesty and reliability
- shows courtesy, concern, and respect for others; observes instructions and rules
- exhibits concentration and sustained attention as shown by perseverance and application to studies
- manifests truthfulness in acknowledging obedience to rules, avoiding cheating in written work, and showing unwillingness to profit by the mistakes of others
- actively helps rid the school of bad influences or environment

Review of character will include evaluation of any events leading to discipline and/or suspension from school. Practices such as frequent unexcused absences, cheating, theft, bullying, or other offenses will be discussed with students' teachers, counselors, and administrators. Relevant information will be forwarded to the Faculty National Honor Society Council for discussion and consideration.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Eligible students are responsible for obtaining and completing an application and documenting their service/activity hours.

The FACS Faculty National Honor Society Council will evaluate the requirements of scholarship, leadership, service, and character for each eligible candidate. Final selection of the National Junior Honor Society is the responsibility of the Faculty National Honor Society Council pending final approval by FACS Administration.

All National Junior Honor Society members are expected to maintain the membership requirements of the National Junior Honor Society. The Faculty National Honor Society Council, with approval from FACS Administration, may dismiss any member failing to fulfill these obligations. Dismissal will result in the removal of the NJHS designation from school records.
