

FEBRUARY 6, 2019

First Assembly Christian School

At once he began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God.

Acts 9:20

A life changed by Christ's love is worth talking about.

Jr HIGH & HIGH SCHOOL:

1. Five will go in to Willy Wonka's factory. Only one will win the prize. Buy your tickets to The FACS Theatre Department's production of Willy Wonka today at facstheatre.booktix.com. Only $10 for FACS Students, Staff, and Alumni! Get ready for a scumdidlyumptious show!!
2. There will be a Diamond Girl informational meeting this Friday during break in the snack bar for anyone interested in being a Diamond Girl for the baseball team.
3. Tyson Strickland and Carson Evans will be signing for football today in home room. Please come out and support these guys!
4. There is a volleyball meeting today for all current eighth-graders and high school volleyball players during break in room 216 in building 8650.
5. The football team is selling Valentine cookies for $3.00. Forms are in the rack outside the school office.
6. Applications for National Honor Society and National Junior Honor Society are available for download from our website's secondary information page. All eighth-graders, sophomores, juniors, and seniors who meet the qualifications should turn in their completed applications on or before the deadline of February 28.

ELEMENTARY:

1. Congratulations to our January Reading All Star, Asher Shaffer in Mrs. Shelton's 4th grade class. Asher wins a wireless speaker and may pick up his prize in the library!

Crusader Café: Pizza