A – College Sports – My child wants to play college sports. What does he/she need to be doing during high school to help this dream come true? Coach April Jauregui (former volleyball coach for University of Memphis and recently hired as coach for FACS varsity volleyball) will talk to you about NCAA, NAIA, and the recruiting process.

B – Class Information –Mrs. Smeltser will direct this session and provide important information relevant to the grade level. Sessions are only for current 8th and current 11th grade parents, since these are important milestones.

*Please note these sessions are grade level specific.

C – College Scholarships and Financial Aid – Help!! We need scholarship money for college. Matthew Rhodes, the financial aid and scholarship outreach coordinator for University of Memphis, will be here to provide important information about scholarships for any college and what your child can be doing to be better prepared for applying for scholarship money.

D – The College Process – What does my child need to be doing to be ready for college? Parker Jones, the college admissions representative from Mississippi State, will be here to discuss the college admissions process for most colleges and what you should be doing at each grade level to be ready for applying to college.

E – ACT Info – Ms. DePaula Ross will provide information on the ACT and how a student can best prepare for this college entrance exam.

F – Off to College – Mrs. Olivia New, the college representative for the University of Memphis, will be here to ease the transition from high school to college. This session is open to seniors and parents of seniors. Below is a description of her session. She will also be available to answer any questions you may have about your first year of college.

Syllabi, Socials, and Salad

Syllabi: Academic preparedness including being organized, time management, study skills and test prep!

Socials: Staying engaged on campus is the number one way to maintain a high gpa and graduate in a timely manner and I'll talk about why!

Salad: College is a time that many students let their physical and mental health slip so we will talk about tips and resources available on college campuses!

** The College Fair is also open to all high school students and parents who would like to come and visit with the college reps.
