Attending the University of Memphis? Good news! Online classes will now cost the same per credit hour as classroom classes. This is big cost savings!

The federal government offers a number of financial aid programs. Besides aid from the U.S. Department of Education (discussed below), you also might get

- aid for serving in the military or for being the spouse or child of a veteran;
- tax benefits for education;
- an Education Award for community service with AmeriCorps;
- Educational and Training Vouchers for current and former foster care youth; and/or
- scholarships and loan repayment through the Department of Health and Human Services' Indian Health Service, National Institutes of Health, and National Health Service Corps.

Will you still need a loan for college? That's OK, but be sure to do your research on interest, amount you can borrow, payment plans etc. (see below) Understand difference of subsidized loans and unsubsidized! Big difference.

Volunteering in your community can lead to community service scholarships. When it comes to scholarship opportunities, community service helps to distinguish you from the competition by showing your commitment to making the world a better place. Scholarship providers, being philanthropists themselves, can appreciate students who show an early interest in helping those around them. Winning scholarships, whether or not they are specifically labeled as community service scholarships, can be much easier with a bit of community service experience listed on your application or worked into your scholarship essay.
